Practice Profile

This is an established architectural and urban design practice having commenced in 1975. The Practice has a staff of 15 with Peter Elliott as Principal Director, Rob Trinca as Senior Associate and Catherine Duggan and Justin Mallia as associates. The scale of work varies from $100,000 up to $15 million plus. As Principal, Peter Elliott oversees and directs all projects. In practices of this size it is possible for the Principal to maintain a close working relationship with the client at every stage of the process. Accordingly, this Practice has been able to maintain a high standard of design and delivery of quality contemporary architecture as is acknowledged by numerous architectural awards and published works.

PRACTICE SERVICES

The practice provides a broad range of pre-design and conventional architectural and urban design services and has considerable breadth of experience in a diverse range of prominent public projects.
